School's Commitment

To help your child at school the staff will do their best to:

ensure your child's physical and social well being at all times and foster feelings of confidence, self-worth and belonging.

deliver a balanced and carefully planned curriculum which meets with the needs of your child respond promptly to any concerns raised about your child's educational development contact you as soon as possible if we have concerns about your child's progress or behaviour and ensure that teaching staff, by mutual arrangement, are available to discuss any concerns you might have about your child's progress or general welfare.

set a planned programme of home learning activities that meet the needs of your child maintain an effective home reading partnership that supports and extends your child's reading development contact you if we are concerned about your child's attendance and punctuality keep you fully informed about your child's progress welcome you into the life of the school and keep you informed about the work that is planned for your child provide a range of extracurricular activities designed to enrich your child's experience.

We agree to help your child to find and achieve their full potential.
